FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS & PRIVACY ACT (FERPA)
AUTHORIZATION FORM FOR STUDENT CONSENT TO RELEASE INFORMATION

For Stark Reading Contest Scholarship Confirmation

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974 is a federal law designed to protect the privacy of a student's education records. Educational records include student account, financial aid, and academic records, which are considered confidential and may not be released without written consent from the student. Due to FERPA laws, it is necessary for the various recordkeeping departments at the administration offices of the college or university in which a student is enrolled to obtain written consent from the student in order to release any account, financial aid, and/or academic information of a student to a third party. If a student desires for his/her academic institution to release information about his/her account, financial aid and/or academic records to a third party (such as the Stark Foundation) for scholarship verification purposes, the institution must first receive written authorization from the student, whether in a form provided by that institution or by the student's completion of this Consent Form.
